Syria, from Abraham to 2011

www.fairfordu3a.org.uk

Registered Charity No 1072658

Today, 4 February

We regret that, due to ill health, Richard Westcott will not be giving his talk and demonstration on:

The Confessions of a Pantomime Dame'

We wish him a speedy recovery.

-o0o-

Instead, and at short notice, we welcome Peter Stephenson of Cirencester U3A. He will be aided by his wife, Miriam, and will be talking on the subject of:

'Syria, from Abraham to 2011'

I'll give a general introduction to Syria, starting from Abraham, and going on through Greeks and Romans, the rise of Islam, Crusaders and the railway that Lawrence of Arabia tried to destroy. The story will end in March 2011, when I was on one of the last organised visits to Syria, just as the present troubles began. En route, I'll show you not to trust Shakespeare's Syrian geography.'

General Meetings

Palmer Hall, 2.30pm - Forthcoming events:

4 March "A Rambling Fancy: A Journey Through Jane Austen's England". A second visit for our speaker, Caroline Sanderson, following a hugely successful talk last year.

1 April AGM + "A Little Law" - Stories from Graham Young, a retired solicitor. We hear some lively legal stories prompted by experiences in dealing with the law.

6 May "In the Eye of the Beholder". Our speaker, Lesley Brain, is a regular columnist in our local newspaper, with her articles: 'Engaging the Brain'.

Editor this month: Sarah Bottomley

Chairman's Update

My search for a new membership secretary continues. If you are interested please contact either myself or Ivor Price. This position needs to be filled at the latest by the AGM in April.

Ted Trowbridge

We are sorry to hear of the passing of Ted Trowbridge. He was a very keen walker and, with his wife, took part, both as a walker and on occasion as walk leader, in several of our walking groups. Our condolences go to Eileen and his family at this time.

Kathleen Pugh

We are sorry to hear of the passing of Kathleen Pugh. Our condolences go to Tegid, Helen, and her family at this time.

Peter Wheeler

We are sorry to hear of the passing of Peter Wheeler. Our condolences go to Jean and his family at this time.

Fairford U3A January meeting

Members who normally read crime fiction will have been pleased to learn more about Judith Cranswick and the way she creates her books.

As an adventurous traveller, tour guide and lecturer on cruise ships she has had plenty of opportunity to gather material. She described incidents that set her thinking of plots and events which have added body and given authenticity to her tales. She went into some detail about the importance of getting the facts right, because otherwise an author's credibility is lost.

Much of the talk concerned three titles, 'Blood on the Bulb Fields', 'Blood in the Wine' and 'A Death too Far', which meant even the non-crime readers could vicariously travel to Amsterdam and the Keukenhof Gardens, the Rhine and the Galapagos Islands. For two years running her first two books 'All in the Mind' and 'Watcher in the Shadows' won the National Association of Writers Award for unpublished works. One thing which became abundantly clear is that it is difficult to appreciate how much preparatory work is involved before starting to write a book.

GROUP EVENTS

Please contact the group leaders if you are interested in joining any of the groups or visit www.fairfordu3a.org.uk for further information.

Birdwatching

Tuesday 18 February

This month we shall visit the Cotswold Water Park where we should be able to find a large selection of the water birds which winter here. Smew, goosander and red crested pochard are all strong possibilities. Meet at the Fairford car park at 9.00am. The paths can be muddy at this time of year so bring suitable footwear.

Richard Morgan

Book Circle 1

Tuesday 11 February

At our February meeting we shall discuss 'The First Casualty' by Ben Elton. Please let me know if you are unable to attend.

Denny Rawlinson

01285 711009

Book Circle 2

Tuesday 11 February

The group meets for discussion on the second Tuesday of every month at 2.30pm in members' homes. Books are chosen in December for the following year and every effort is made to ensure that they are also available as audiobooks. Anyone interested in joining us would be most welcome.

Recorders

Fridays 7 and 21 February

February meetings will start with anyone who would like to play the treble (from 2.00-2.30) and followed by the main group at 2.30 to finish at 4.30, with a break for tea. We should be in the Farmor room on the ground floor of the Fairford Community Centre and will let you know if we have to use another room. As usual, we shall be playing a varied selection of music arranged for Descant, Treble, Tenor and Bass with the addition of Great and Contra basses in the occasional piece.

If there are any more recorder players who would like to join a friendly, non-judgemental group you would be very welcome - please contact: Hilary Bradshaw 01367 860030:

hilary@burytown15.co.uk or Jay Mathews 01367 860869: jaymathews124@mac.com for further information. We have some spare instruments and stands; please ask if you would like to borrow one.

Rummikub

Thursday 13 February

Straddlers

There will be no Straddlers walk in February – Paul O’Shaughnessy will lead the first walk of the year on 20th March.

Striders

Tuesday 25 February

Well...after all the rain, it has taken a few hours of head scratching to find a walk that hasn't been under water! February's Striders walk will be from the spring-like village of Ashbury, about 3 miles south of Shrivenham. The 6 mile walk starts at the very popular Rose and Crown pub in Ashbury (<http://www.roseandcrowninn.co.uk/>) and follows the footpath to Idstone and on to Bishopstone. Many of the buildings in the area are made of hard local chalk - and are thatched – and very attractive. We walk through Bishopstone to a most picturesque quarter of the village called 'The City' before joining open country for the gentlest stroll through lovely valleys up to the Ridgeway. Honestly ladies, it's an easy climb! After about 2 miles we turn back downhill to Ashbury and lunch at the Rose & Crown. Please meet at the Fairford car park at 9.15 or at the pub just before 10am. Ashbury sounds a long way away but it's only 15 miles from Fairford and the suggested passenger rate is £2. Please let me know if you plan to walk OR if you plan to go direct to Ashbury. As normal, we will book lunch before we set out on the walk - see the website for details (the menu may vary on the day and there will be specials available).

Strollers

Friday 28 February

This month our 3-4 mile stroll will be around the countryside at Poulton, starting and finishing at the Falcon Arms in Poulton. Some mud is to be expected (especially after the very wet weather of January) but most of the walk is on firm tracks or metalled roads and given a fine sunny day should be easy walking. At one point we will need to cross the A417 so some care will be needed.

Meet at the Fairford car park at 9.45am or at the Falcon Inn at 10am where we can order our lunch before setting off. Suggested passenger fee is 50 pence.

Traditional Jazz

Thursdays 6 February, 6 March Hymns and Spirituals

The group meets on the first Thursday of each month at our house in Lechlade from 2-4.30pm
This month our programme will feature hymns and spirituals including George Lewis's 'Jazz at Vespers' concert from the Holy Trinity Episcopal Church in Oxford Ohio, 1954 and the 1999 series of concerts from the Danish churches at Sorgenfri, Femo and Holmstrup. These include such favourites as The Old Rugged Cross, Lead Me Saviour, Just a Little While To Stay Here, Softly and Tenderly Jesus Is Calling, and Just a Closer Walk with Thee.

Walk with a Pub Lunch Wednesday 12th February

Our walk will commence from the Trout at St. John's Priory on the Faringdon Road just outside Lechlade where we shall cross to St John's lock and walk westward towards Halfpenny Bridge in Lechlade and continue on towards the Round House and then Inglesham. We shall then walk in a southerly direction for a short distance along the Lechlade to Highworth Road before we take the Buscot turning where we will take a track at Buscot Wick Farm to continue towards Buscot Weir. We will then meander along the Thames path back towards our starting point at the Trout. The walk is about 5 miles. Some mud is to be expected so stout shoes/boots and walking poles recommended. Meet at the Fairford car park at 9:30am or at the Trout for 9:45am. Suggested driver donation is £1.

GROUP REVIEWS

Book Circle 1

Three Men in a Boat by Jerome K Jerome

Three good reasons to read this book in January:

1. Light relief after the stresses and strains of Christmas and New Year demands.
2. The descriptions of long sunny, summer days.
3. It is a short book.

Originally written as a serial in 1889, the story was meant as a historical and informative account of the Thames. The editor cut this material and encouraged the amusing passages. The three men and the dog were based on real characters who spent their spare time messing about on the river. The book was a great success in Britain and America and has never been out of print.

This proved a popular book with everyone in the group. Smiles, laughter and recognition of the humour in the stories were universal in the responses from everyone. Despite being all females and slightly older than the men in the book, we delighted in their escapades all those years ago. Jerome has captured a time that was so very different from today and yet he describes human characteristics that have not changed much in 100+ years.

Family History 1

A Treasure Trove found in the Loft.

Alison told us what her family were doing during the two World Wars. Both her grandfathers were teachers, a reserved occupation, and did not fight in WW1. They were brothers (her parents were cousins) and went to Cambridge University. One taught at Alleyn's school in Dulwich and the other for Essex County Council. Alison's really exciting discovery was the collection of her great-aunt's diaries with daily entries from 1911 to 1946! Most of the entries were very humdrum about the running of a tobacconist's and newsagent's shop but every now and then the war made itself felt. For example: '3 August 1914: War rumoured. Very busy indeed all day selling papers.' '4 August: War declared.' '18 December: Egbert had come home ill. Dr signed papers. Deep mental depression. Pa said Egbert had been acting strange.' After only four months of war, shell-shock had begun to show itself.

The books in which Auntie May had written her diary were also fascinating. Every year 'The Ladies Year Book' provided a recipe at the bottom of each left hand page with gardening hints on the right.

Alison also told us of her family's involvement in WW2. We were amused to hear of her uncle, a founder of the British communist party and a conscientious objector, arguing his way out of enlistment. 'I shall disobey orders and I shall be shot'. We are grateful to Alison for a memorable talk and for her hospitality.

Miriam Scott

Family History 2

Wednesday 15 January at 2.30pm

Our thanks are due to Mr Peter Martin who gave an excellent talk on the life history of his wife's grandmother - with humble beginnings in the Workhouse with all its privations and a criminal stepfather. It made for a fascinating tale of a life of Victorian "social service provision". Hospitality was provided by Mike Johnson whom we must also thank.

Dance to Five Rhythms October Meeting

In October we wanted to remember the founder of our dance movement, Gabrielle Roth. She was an American dance therapist who discovered that when five specific rhythms of music were played in a particular order they left the dancers feeling uplifted and refreshed in spirit. This month in the first half of our session we went back to the roots of her idea by using the music composed by Gabrielle and her talented group of musicians. In the second half, we danced to the music created by Susannah Darling Khan, who spread awareness of Five Rhythms dance through Britain.

We all agreed that we had enjoyed the change of programme. In previous sessions the music used had been mainly classical, pop or folk, played in the order devised by Gabrielle.

Next month we shall revert to our usual mixture of pieces. If anyone reading this is tempted to join us, the hall is spacious, the floor perfect for dancing and the sessions as vigorous or gentle as each dancer chooses to make them.

Pétanque Group

As summer was so good last year our members took full advantage of it and quite often we had to divide the piste into 5 lanes which were a bit narrow. To rectify this Dave, Reg and Heather had a meeting with the new Head of Farmor's School and asked if we could extend the area by about a metre. With his permission work has now started on this project and Dave and Nick braved the frost to start moving logs in order to make the new boundary. With the aid of the rest of the workforce and the donation of 5 tons of scalplings the new area will be all ready for the 2014 season.

The Heritage Room has been booked for Thursday 13th March at 10am when we will have our pre-season meeting. New members will be welcome, and Dave and Heather will also be available on 13th February for the Group leaders' meeting and will then be able to give any interested U3A new members more details of the Pétanque group. On 23rd January we held our New Year's lunch in The Bull and we look forward to another good season.

Dave and Heather Baber

Philosophy

January

The Subject for Discussion was "Age, Good or Bad"? Bula who led the discussion thought that a better title would be "Living on the Edge", as the older one gets the more precarious life becomes. A small perturbation can result in a rapid decline. Ageing, by shortening the remaining life span, could result in a better overview, together with a freeing of attitude giving less concern as to what people might think.

Manus pointed out that the effect of ageing is a process dependent on personal judgement. He quoted from a poem by Henry Vaughan. "Some men a forward motion love, But I by backward step would move; And when this dust falls to the urn, In that state I came, return." Susan followed this by quoting from Ecclesiastes, "Remember the days of thy youth." Manus then produced a graph showing awareness of an individual over their life span. How we start as a child only with immediate concerns, progress to wider appreciation of the world on maturity and then decline in old age to the child-like state.

We had, I think, at this stage of the discussion, reached a consensus that in old age an outward-looking individual was more satisfied with life and therefore would probably be more acceptable to the younger generation.

Dan Deane

Poetry Circle 1

Our theme for January was Words and Music. Most of us chose poems which had been set to music and we remarked how the music enhanced the verse. Unsurprisingly many of us chose love songs- 'My love is like a red, red rose,' by Robert Burns, 'Bredon Hill' by A.E.Housman, 'Danny Boy' by F.Weatherley, 'Kathleen Mavourneen' by Julia Crawford and 'The Rose' by Amanda Macbroom. 'It came upon the midnight clear' by Edmund Sears added a seasonal touch whilst 'Macavity the mystery cat' by T.S.Eliot and 'Mad dogs and Englishmen' by Noel Coward made an amusing change.

The poems, often nostalgic, sometimes poignant were encapsulated by one poem, 'I sit beside the fire and think' by J.R.R. Tolkien.

"But all the while I sit and think
Of times there were before.
I listen for returning feet
And voices at the door."

Strollers

Friday 29 November

A pleasant late Autumn walk for 13 of us who gathered at the Riverside in Lechlade and set off at 10.15 on a 2.25 mile walk 'around' Lechlade. Sky was clear, but the wind was cold in unsheltered areas. It was good to have Rosemary Westlake with us, and how good she was negotiating stiles with guiding hands of Jeanne Watkins and others.

We enjoyed a combination of river banks, country lanes, field paths and town footpaths which took us in a circular route around Lechlade, finishing with the Seven Stiles loop....which now has no stiles! An excellent lunch by a roaring fire at the Riverside was a very convivial way of rounding off the 2013 Strollers programme and we now look forward to walking both with established leaders and some new volunteers in 2014.
